

Emily Bruza

Born in Michigan, raised in Southern California, Emily graduated from F.I.D.M with a degree in Visual Communications. She has her family to thank for introducing her into the arts and has loved to style, design and explore since a young age.

Emily is a bit of a hopeless romantic who thrives on helping people make their special day perfect and full of joy. She loves to think outside the box and finds inspiration in nature and unexpected places. She has gained valuable experience coordinating and assisting on countless weddings, ranging from intimate indoor weddings to larger outdoor spectacles. With an added background in Film and Television, Emily is able to navigate planning your wedding with grace and attention to detail.
